Growing Faith through Catechism

By Fr Joshua Drake

"Let's start at the very beginning A very good place to start When you read you begin with A-be-see When you sing you begin with do-re-mi" —Julie Andrews in The Sound of Music

In the wonderful movie The Sound of Music Julie Andrews' character teaches the von Trapp family how to sing, starting from the very beginning with the do-remi's. But as the movie progresses you see the kids excelling in singing as they have seemingly mastered the do-re-mi's. This reminds me of a music teacher in my college who was famous for saying, "Great musicians are simply those who do the basics consistently and with excellence." This has always stuck with me. My experience with learning the guitar was not like this. When I was young I was drawn to the guitar because of the music of several of my favorite bands. When I finally got a guitar my parents graciously found me a guitar teacher who started me off with the basics of scales and blues music. But I hated it. All I wanted to do was play rock 'n' roll and I scorned my lessons. I did not see the point of all the practice and scales and why he was teaching me how to play the blues—and not rock 'n' roll.

Eventually, after my insistent begging, he started to teach me select songs from my favorite bands. Then I discovered that the scales and roots of the blues were the foundation to the rock 'n' roll I wanted to play! However, sadly soon after this realization I was no longer able to take guitar lessons and I was on my own. But instead of progressing as a musician, I was content to merely focus on being a "guitar player." By this I mean, I stopped practicing the basics, I never completed my music theory study, and never learned how to sight read music and play it on the guitar. I did learn how to play sloppy and loud songs of my favorite bands at the time (who are not my favorite bands anymore). To this day this foolish mistake has been a great regret of mine. I often wonder what it would have been like if I had Shalom!

Here we are in the month of November, wow! Where did the time go? With November here we will soon be celebrating Thanksgiving. We will gather with family and friends, eat turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, topping it off with pie-probably pumpkin pie. And we'll be thinking of all the things that we are grateful for, like family and friends, work and good health.

On Thanksgiving Day there will be lots of prayers said. But why don't we say prayers during the whole month of November, starting with All Saints Day? In fact, why don't we pray for what we are grateful every day throughout the year whether it is Thanksgiving or not?

As we discovered in our Bible book study on Ephesians, Paul says a prayer to the believers at Ephesus that is a wonderful prayer for our friends, family, and church, and for each other:

"For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with might through his Spirit in

system. **♦

the inner man, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have power to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." (Eph. 3:14-19 RSV)

Even though Paul was suffering, he prayed this prayer for the Ephesians.

If we are truly thankful, would we not want to pray this for everyone in our lives that we are thankful for? So this is my challenge to you this November: that we pray Paul's prayer for our coworkers, friends, family, neighbors, our church, and our clergy. And to not only pray this during the month of November but to continue throughout the year!

May the peace of the Lord be always with you!

Serious Discipleship

continued to learn and master the basics of not only guitar but of music. How much more enriched my life would be by being able to be a musician and not merely a "guitar player" with so many gaps in my musical education!

A couple of years ago, I finally decided to humble myself and go back and start my music education from the beginning, to pick up where I left off when I was 12 years old and try to fill in those gaps and the things I missed or skipped over. I can tell you it was not easy—but it has been worth it.

And through that journey I have learned just how important it is to "do the basics with consistency and excellence." And THIS is the essence of the Catechism. It is not just for new Christians, but it is the very foundation of our Christian faith, as it articulates all the foundational realities of our faith, God, salvation, prayer, the Church, the Bible, and more. These realities of our faith are things that can be articulated in simple language, but the depth of them can (and should) be explored for the rest of our lives.

Catechism: for exploring the the depth of Th

The reality of Christianity in the modern era is that the Church is fragmented and divided. Many of us grew up in churches that may have not taught us the full counsel of God. Many of us grew up in churches that may have only focused on part of Scripture, or their particular theology, or their own slice of Church history. Thus there are often gaps in all of our formation and foundation. Thus it is a great thing for a community of believers to gather together and to sync up and grow together through the shared Catechism.

To this end, I would like to encourage you all to come to our 9:00 a.m. Catechism class on Sundays. I believe that by doing so, we as a congregation will start to live the Christian life together with excellence... much like the von Trapp family started to sing together with excellence because they all shared the same foundation of the do-re-mi's. ◆

Shepherd's Love

By Agnes Olmsted

What a blessing for those who were able to join us to meet Bishop George Bagamuhunda at the Bishop's luncheon here at Saint Francis on October 24. He lives in the same town where the Twinomujuni Children's Home in Uganda is. When Bishop Menees asked Stephen and me to partner with Rick and April Dobbs in the Shepherd's Love ministry that oversees the home in Kabale, Uganda, we were honored. More than that, we were very humbled by the amazing work Rick and April have done in Africa for over ten years. We look forward to sharing more about this wonderful ministry in the coming months. ◆
